Gentleman-Style (Wolf/Wolf/indecent obsession) soft and white like virgin snow she's calmly watching my desire grow the moon is full, wearing a dirty smile and I cover her body gentleman-style her fragile cobweb surrounds my heart no escapin' till death do us part my blood is calling, I wait a while and I grant all her wishes gentleman-style I grant all her wishes gentleman-style how to survive the impossible is knowing when it's time to go how to erase what's burnt into you is storing memories in the attic making room for something new cold blue sweat on desert soil love is watching a good thing spoil emotions in bondage ain't worthwhile and I walk out of her life gentleman-style
